

Mentoring

Irma Warr

I. Introduction.

A. God uses cracked pots. (2 Corinthians 4:7)

B. Mentoring is not just for professionals. (Titus 2:3-5)

II. Mentoring requires authenticity and openness.

III. Teaching goodness is more caught than taught. Women need role models.

IV. We find inner peace by realizing God's sovereignty. (Psalm 16:5; 61:2)

V. God's Word can give you strength for the day. (Psalm 119:11)

VI. Mentoring can be involve just being an influence. (Matthew 25:35-40)

VII. Prayer is the most important part of mentoring.

A. Ask the Lord for someone you can reach out to.

B. Pray for those you mentor.

VIII. Use whatever resources you have to serve others. Mentoring is serving. (1 Corinthians 1:19)

Application questions:

1. What are the chief characteristics of healthy mentors?

2. Who are some people you can get to know better for a possible mentoring opportunity?

3. How can you grow as a mentor? Explain.
